What is the cut-off time for submitting deposits?

Mobile deposited funds are available on the business day after the deposit credit date, unless a hold is applied.

FOR DEPOSITS MADE	FUNDS ARE GENERALLY AVAILABLE
Before 3:30 p.m. CST business days	On the next day after the day of your deposit
After 3:30 p.m. CST business days	On the day after the deposit credit date
Non-business days	On the day after the deposit credit date

For example, if you make a deposit before the cut-off time on Monday, funds are generally available to you on Tuesday. If you make a deposit after the cut-off time on Friday, funds are generally available to you on the following Tuesday. Business days are Monday-Friday except holidays.

What do I do with my check after I deposit it through Mobile Deposit?

After you receive confirmation that we have reviewed and accepted your image, mark the check VOID and securely store the check for 60 days after your deposit. After that time period, you should destroy the check by shredding it.

Are there any fees to use Mobile Deposit?

Farmers-Merchants Bank of Illinois does not presently charge a fee for Mobile Deposit. However, at the bank’s sole discretion, a fee may be imposed in the future after you have received at least thirty (30) days’ notice.
